

What's being said about Young Women In Harmony?

"This was my first year as a camp counselor for Mountain Harmony Camp, a three-day event held in the Redwoods of California. What an amazing experience! I learned just as much from the faculty as the girls did and made many new friends – young and old. Young Women In Harmony is a wonderful way to introduce our art form to the next generation of singers. I can't wait until next year!"

—SUE BOGUE, CALIFORNIA HEAT CHORUS
RED BLUFF, CALIF.

"My daughter was so fortunate to attend the Young Women in Harmony Camp this past November (2015). She had an amazing experience! She met new lifelong friends, sang with an exceptional group of instructors and was absolutely delighted to meet LOVE NOTES! She cannot wait to attend next year's camp! (I wouldn't mind attending too!)"

—RAEC GLINES LOPEMAN
RED BLUFF, CALIF.

"A neat program for the talented singer in a small school. It gives that student a chance to do something not everyone else in the choir does."

—CASSIE WILBECK, DESHLER PUBLIC SCHOOLS
DESHLER, NEB.

What is Young Women in Harmony?

The Sweet Adelines International Young Women in Harmony program reaches out to young women through the American musical art form of barbershop harmony. Its goal is to provide both educational and performance opportunities and to offer music educators a means of introducing the study and performance of barbershop in school music programs.

Young Women in Harmony (YWIH) is an exceptional educational program for women age 25 and younger. YWIH enriches and empowers young women worldwide by providing life-changing opportunities to sing four-part a cappella harmony, barbershop style. Through music and performance, these women develop new vocal skills, lifelong friendships and memories they'll cherish for a lifetime.
