ELECTIVES • PLEASE CHOOSE ON ELECTIVE FOR EACH SESSION

Class Focus Key*: [G] General Education [QC] Queens College

*Class electives are open to all attendees unless otherwise noted.

THURSDAY, JULY 9 – 3-4:15 p.m. • SESSION 1 BREAKOUTS

[QC] LET THE MUSIC LEAD YOU Instructed by Mary Rhea

- The More you know about the music, the better! Discover how the arrangement of the song reveals phrasing, emotion, and intention. This class helps you find the musical gems that shape interpretation and make your quartet's performance shine. Quartets are welcome to bring arrangements to showcase.

[G] FROM NOTE TO CHORD: THE SECRET LIFE OF VERTICAL HARMONY Instructed by Patty Cobb Baker

- You know your notes. Awesome! Now, do you know how your note relates to the other three being sung with you, and why that is important? Barbershop harmony is entirely built on how notes relate inside a chord. More than any other vocal style, barbershop depends on pure tuning, specific interval roles, and precise balance to create its signature ringing sound. This class explores all of that and more. If you want to be a master of the barbershop craft, this class is for you (not just baritones!)

[G] UNITY Instructed by Peggy Gram

- Unity is probably the most frequently used word in the Judging Category Description Book. It's a huge part of all four categories! And, let's face it, to be a unified group, unity has to be a part of who you are administratively if you're going to succeed at it musically and visually. We're going to explore unity in all the ways it affects our musical performance and look at different ways to pull that unity together.

FRIDAY, JULY 10 – 10:45 a.m.-12 p.m. • SESSION 2 BREAKOUTS

[QC] THERE'S A STORY IN THOSE WORDS Instructed by Mary Rhea

- Every word the lyricist chooses shapes the emotional message of a song. Explore how lyric choices, rhyme patterns, and word sounds create meaning and emotion. Learn to let the text guide your storytelling to create an authentic, compelling performance.

[G] ONE SONG, ONE STORY: MASTERING UNITY IN BARBERSHOP VOCAL AND VISUAL PERFORMANCE Instructed by Patty Cobb Baker

- Learn how to unite your ensemble so every voice, expression, and movement supports the same story. This class focuses on building true unity in all aspects of barbershop performance – shared intention, matched vocal production, aligned musical choices, and coordinated visual delivery. Participants will garner practical techniques for creating performances that communicate one message, as one.

[G] CHARACTERIZATION Instructed by Peggy Gram

- Characterization is the process authors use to create and reveal a character's personality, traits, and motivations, either directly (telling the reader) or indirectly (showing through actions, speech, thoughts, and appearance) to make them realistic and understandable. Authors have all the time and page they want to create and embellish that characterization. We have a few minutes as performers to put that same lightning into our music to reach our audiences. Come explore some paths to creating that magic between performer and audience.

FRIDAY, JULY 10 – 1:15 p.m.-2:30 p.m. • SESSION 3 BREAKOUTS

[QC] EFFECTIVE QUARTET REHEARSALS Instructed by Dynasty

- This class covers elements that make your rehearsal efficient, effective, and joyful. Topics include rehearsal planning, warmups, duetting/trios, and quartet communication.

[G] MASTERING VOCAL ENERGY: THE KEY TO BETTER EVERYTHING! Instructed by Patty Cobb Baker

- Unleash incredible vocal performances by learning to harness emotion-driven vocal energy as the fuel for dynamic singing! This class blends physiology, artistry, and practical skill-building to help you unlock your most expressive, energetic, and empowered voice. Show up ready to breath deeply, explore boldly, and sing like never before!

[G] TEMPO, PULSE & RHYTHMS Instructed by Peggy Gram

- What would we be without them? They're the map of our music, telling us how fast we'll go, when we'll slow, how long we'll stay at one location before we'll move on, and when we'll stop to rest and gas up, and when we'll just stop. So why do some of our bodies immediately stiffen up when we start counting the rhythm patterns in a song as though someone's going to rap our knuckles with a ruler if we make a mistake? Let's make it fun! (and more easily digestible).

FRIDAY, JULY 10 – 3 p.m.-4:15 p.m. • SESSION 4 BREAKOUTS

[QC] HARMONY ON STAGE AND OFF Instructed by Mary Rhea

- Creating Your Quartet Culture: Learn how to build a quartet culture that supports trust, joy, healthy communication, and longevity. This class explores the agreements, habits, and interpersonal skills that keep your ensemble thriving—so the harmony you create together goes far beyond the music.

[G] HEALTHY HABITS FOR HEALTHY SINGING Instructed by Patty Cobb Baker

- Our vocal instrument is a precious thing and deserves only the finest TLC! This class will explore the “best practices” that lead to a healthy voice and beautiful singing. We will touch on the care and feeding of the aging voice, and also discuss the unconscious things we might be doing that can sabotage our vocal health and sound production.

[G] “WHAT TO SAY WHEN YOU TALK TO YOURSELF” Instructed by Peggy Gram

- Referencing the book by the same name, we will discuss the things that we say to ourselves, and the effect they have on our lives and how we deal with others. Then we'll explore ways to improve those things we say to ourselves and the effect that can have on our lives. Consider it spring cleaning for your mind! Come join the fun – you won't need a broom or even a Dustbuster!

SATURDAY, JULY 11 – 10:45 a.m.-12 p.m. • SESSION 5 BREAKOUTS

[QC] LET ME ENTERTAIN YOU Instructed by Mary Rhea

- Open the door to a new level of creativity by learning how to design an effective Open Division or Entertainment Package from the ground up. You'll gain practical strategies for storytelling, staging, character work, transitions, and audience engagement.

[G] “SURROUNDED BY IDIOTS: HOW TO UNDERSTAND THOSE WHO CANNOT BE UNDERSTOOD.” Instructed by Patty Cobb Baker

- This class, based on the book of the same name by Thomas Erikson, is for anyone who has ever felt frustrated or confused by other people's behavior. It explores four types of human behavior and gives you a framework to decode it. Even more importantly, this class will help you learn to approach those relationships with empathy and strategy instead of frustration...and ensure the idiot out there isn't you!

[G] WHY IS THIS SONG SO DIFFICULT? Instructed by Peggy Gram

- Why is it that some songs are just so hard? We'll look at examples of part lines that give us headaches, break down what it takes to make us not only able to navigate them, but sing them in tempo and even make them sound easy – thus achieving Great Singer status!! Imagine how delighted our quartet mates and directors will be!!

SATURDAY, JULY 11 – 1:15 p.m.-2:30 p.m. • SESSION 6 BREAKOUTS

[QC] REACH YOUR AUDIENCE Instructed by Mary Rhea

- Learn how to engage the audience as an active part of your performance, inviting them into the story and emotion. Discover ways that character and intention turn listeners into participants.

[G] GROWING TO SERVE Instructed by Patty Cobb Baker

- What skills do you need to lead others in Sweet Adelines, whether it be as a director, a team leader, an RMT member, or an international board of committee member? If you love taking the lead in life and in Sweet Adelines, Past International President Patty Cobb Baker will explore the skills needed to be successful in your leadership endeavors, and give you guidance on how to develop them even further. Get ready to step on the leadership ladder and climb as high as you like!

[G] AUTHENTICITY Instructed by Peggy Gram

- Authenticity is a multi-faceted concept for Sweet Adelines. In a perfect world, we should always strive to be our authentic selves, understanding and embracing our personal core values in all aspects of our lives. That can put us, as individuals, into vulnerable situations, i.e., where we feel pressure to explain the reasons why we cannot support both core values of a group and our own, or as performers finding it difficult to portray emotions necessary to fully convey the meaning of a song's lyrics and our own core values. We will explore the possibilities in this class and try to get to the heart of the matter.
