ARRANGER'S WORKSHOP

Happiness is...

for the first time!

The air was electric with anticipation and excitement as 42 members of the Association of Arrangers gathered in Tulsa, August 26. The occasion was the very first 3-day workshop exclusively for Arrangers.
Fourteen regions were represented by Sweet Adelines from all over the United States and Canada. Spearheading this progressive affair was sparkling Renee Craig, Chairman of the Musical Arrangements Committee.

USO SHOWS

It all began with a telephone call from Colonel Jerome Corey, Director of USO Shows to Managing Director Peggy Chambers inquiring if Sweet Adelines would be interested in sending three quartets on a 17-day Pacific Hospital Tour, which would include visits to Japan, Guam, Okinawa and the Philippines. Peggy answered yes! The quartets' performances were so well received that Sweet Adelines quartets were included as a regular part of the USO program in the Pacific. Quartets participating were: SHIMMERONS, SHONDELLS, METROPOLITANS, PITTSBURGHETTES, TROUVAIRES, BRON'S TONES.

During the Annual Membership meeting at international convention everyone present joined in to help burn the mortgage on the International Headquarters office. International President Zoe Thompson, wearing a silver Fire Chief's hat, Helen Ryan, Lois Napier and Peggy Chambers burned their copy of the mortgage in an urn shaped foil bowl.
