Sweet Adelines Stories: Quartet Adventures

Happy Birthday to Sweet Adelines International! We are so grateful for this organization.

Since we can't sing like normal right now, I'm thinking about some of the adventures we've had together. One of the funniest things is how on almost every road trip we seem to miss an exit...

Sometimes it's because we are learning a new song and having too much fun singing.

Sometimes it's because we are just talking trying to solve the world's problems.

Sometimes it's because the tenor accidentally sets the GPS to avoid toll roads so we get to see the countryside around Orlando instead of taking the turnpike.

But no matter what, even when we miss the exit and add a few miles to our trip, we love traveling together and can't wait until we can do it again! Maybe we'll "accidentally" miss an exit or two next trip just to spend more time together.

Happy Birthday Sweet Adelines!
